

Filipino, as Filipinos speak it.

Tara Lets! : Binondo

Let's see some useful sentences that Cris and Mickey used:

1. Ano ang makikita natin sa Binondo? – What can we see here in Binondo?
2. Kahit saan sa mundo, kahit anong bansang puntahan mo, may Chinatown. Pero sa Philippines, totoong Chinatown ito. – Anywhere in the world, any country you go to, there's bound to be a Chinatown. But in the Philippines, it's a real Chinatown.
3. Ang tagal na! Halos kasing tagal ng mga Espanyol. – That's way back! Almost as long as the Spanish!
4. Kawawa naman sila. – That's sucky for them...
5. Bilang isang turista, anong makikita ko dito sa Binondo? – As a tourist, what can I see in Binondo?
6. Anong church ito? – What church is this?
7. Maganda ba itong church na ito? – Is the church nice?
8. Makikita nating ang fusion dito. – We can see the fusion here.
9. Grabe! Grabeng grabe! – Wow! WOW!
10. Bigyan mo ako ng top 5 Chinese foodstores dito! – Give me your top 5 Chinese foodstores here!

Filipino, as Filipinos speak it.

11. Kunwari gutom na ako, tapos putek, gusto ko ng kumain. – If I’m starving, and damn, I really want to eat.
12. Naglakad-lakad na kami ni Jovitt sa Benavidez, ang dami ngang kainan diyan. – Jov and I walked around Benavidez street, and there really is a lot of places to eat in there.
13. May mga ibang Spanish words na pinasok sa Fookien. – Some Spanish words were injected into the Fookien dialect.
14. Wala na! – I’m all out!
15. Nakadalawa ka na, ano yung tatlo pa? – You’ve got two down, what’s the other three?
16. Ano pa ang ibang makikita dito sa Binondo? – What else can we see here?
17. Malapit din ito sa Divisoria, tama ba? – It’s also near Divisoria, right?
18. Tuwing pasko, punong-puno yung mga malls dito ng mga taong naghahanap ng Christmas gifts, giveaways... - Every Christmas, the malls here are packed with people looking for Christmas gifts and giveaways...
19. So, kung tapos na kayo kumain sa Binondo, gusto niyo magshopping, maglakad lang kayo, take a jeep, go to Divisoria. – So, after you eat in Binondo and you want to shop, just walk or take a jeep to Divisoria.
20. May mga ma-idadagdag ka pa ba sa ating talakayan tungkol sa Binondo? – So, do you have anything else to add on our discussion on Binondo?
21. So, iyan ang ating Tara Let’s para sa buwan na ito, so, ano Cris, tara let’s? – So, that’s our Tara Let’s for this month. What you say, Cris, tara let’s?